TACKLING POVERTY CONFERENCE: EDINBURGH

Saturday 1st December 2012 10:00 am 'til 4.00 pm

Wiston Community School Pennywell Road, Edinburgh EH4 4QP

MAIN SPEAKER: Owen Jones, Writer & Commentator

Last year, the 2011 Edinburgh Anti-Poverty Conference attracted over 120 delegates from all over Scotland. From a dynamic mix of speakers, workshops and discussion, we created the Edinburgh Anti-Poverty Charter (see overleaf). This year, building on the work from the 2012 Conference, we aim to create a new, Scotland-wide Charter which forms the basis of an action plan to fight the blight of Poverty in Scotland.

Workshops led by: STUC, Scottish Pensioners Forum, Edinburgh TUC, The Fife Diet Project, North Edinburgh Women's Group, STUC Women's Committee, Edinburgh Tenant's Association, North Edinburgh Credit Union, Unison & Unite the Union

'QUESTION TIME' chaired by Keith Aitken, Broadcaster & Journalist, with panellists including local politicians, activists and trade unionists.

REGISTRATION DETAILS See Overleaf for full registration details:
