

Are you interested in celebrating the role of heroic women in North Edinburgh?

Free Course: Breaking the Mould

Wednesdays

Royston/Wardieburn
Community Centre
11 Pilton Drive North
EH5 1NF

11.00-1.00
Creche available

Breaking the Mould is a new project which aims to record and celebrate inspirational women from North Edinburgh who have made a difference to the lives of others locally, nationally, internationally. Women who have 'broken the mould' are of particular interest to the project and will be featured in an Edinburgh wide publication.

If you are interested in joining the class or would like more information about how you can get involved call Lynn McCabe at Royston/Wardieburn Community Centre on 552 5700 or Janette Bond, from the Workers' Education Association on 225 2580. Alternatively, check out the North Edinburgh Breaking the Mould Facebook page. For more information about the project in other areas of the country contact: <https://www.facebook.comWEABreakingthemould>

 @WEAScotland  WEA-Scotland  <http://southeast.weascotland.org.uk/>

WEA: A better world - equal, democratic and just; through adult education the WEA challenges and inspires individuals, communities and society

The Workers' Educational Association is a charity registered in England and Wales (number 1112775) and in Scotland (number SC039239) and a company limited by guarantee registered in England and Wales (number 2806910). Registered address is WEA, 4 Luke Street, London, EC2A 4XW. www.wea.org.uk