

MARCH FOR EUROPE! – EDINBURGH 25 MARCH

The March will now assemble in Waterloo Place then progress down Regent Road, Abbey Hill and finish at The Scottish Parliament as the City Council requested. #MarchForEurope!

Programme

Start

- Distributing Posters, Stickers, Flags, T-shirt
- Few words on rules and plan of the march
- Small Speech

March

- 0.9 mile between Waterloo and the Scottish Parliament
- Pipe (hopefully)

Parliament

- Speeches
- Music (hopefully)
- Speeches
- Petition signing

Map

The map displays the route of the 'March for Europe' in Edinburgh on 25 March. The route is marked with a yellow line and arrows indicating the direction of travel. It begins at Waterloo Place, marked with a blue 'X' and a text box: 'Starting point : 1, Waterloo place 1 pm - 1:45pm'. The route proceeds east along Calton Road, then turns south onto Regent Road, marked with a yellow text box: 'Regent Road 1:45pm - 2 pm'. From Regent Road, the route turns south onto Abbey Hill, marked with a yellow text box: 'Abbey Hill 2pm - 2:15'. Finally, the route turns west onto The Royal Mile, ending at the Scottish Parliament, marked with a red 'X' and a text box: 'End point: Scottish Parliament 2:15pm - 4:30pm'. The map also shows the Edinburgh Waverley Train Station, North Bridge, and various streets including Princes St, Calton Rd, The Royal Mile, and High St. A small 'March for Europe' logo is visible in the top right corner of the map area.