John Meehan proves an easy—but slightly tape-shy—winner of the Boys' Race.
A study in youthful determination and style as competitors set off in the Girls' Race won by Thelma Taylor.

The People's Museum of Memory and Myth invites you to

A Coffee Morning of Memories

Monday 2nd October 10:30 – 12:30

North Edinburgh Arts Centre

Please join us to hear about the project, view some of the exhibits, and most importantly to share memories and stories over a cuppa and cake.
